BAN THE WOLF WHISTLE

There has been a call to have legal implications for people who participate in the practice of wolf whistling.

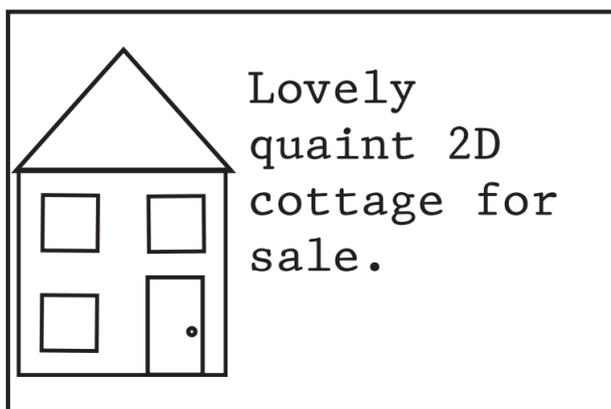

In a recent poll conducted by End Violence Towards Women 85% of women aged 18-24 experienced unwanted sexual attention.

So with this in mind why don't you stop being a mug and giving wolves a bad name.

"WAR ON FATBERGS!"

Us Brits are flushing all sorts down our loos from wet wipes to earbuds or your nans favourite shoes however this is all piling up.

Fatbergs are large masses of congealed fat and personal hygiene products, these masses are blocking our sewers leading to some poor fella having to break it up.

So do them a favour and put your bits in the right bins.
